

Avyakt Signals – September 2026

Now reveal your form of a bestower.

- 1) At present, you children have to reveal your merciful form and form of a bestower. Let all of your treasure stores remain constantly open. Always keep your original and eternal sanskars of a bestower emerged in your life. Become a messenger, carrying God's message and spread the message of the Father's revelation throughout the world. Become an unlimited bestower, standing on the globe and spreading vibrations and doing this unlimited service. You will become a great bestower.
- 2) Make the sanskars of a bestower emerge and accumulate your account of charity by serving with your mind. Make weak souls happy with your words and distressed souls aware of their honour and put zeal and enthusiasm into disheartened souls. Use your relationships and connections to enable souls to experience the colour of your elevated company and your account of charity will then continue to accumulate.
- 3) As children of the Bestower, you should become filled with the feeling of giving something to everyone. Never think: "If this happens, I too will do it." "If the situation or atmosphere is like this, then I will do this." Those who have the sanskars of a bestower will automatically receive co-operation from everyone. Therefore, you master bestowers can never have any expectation of receiving anything from others.
- 4) When you sparkling stars reach your complete stage like the sun and the moon, that is, when you are stable in your stage of a master bestower, then automatically wandering, searching souls will quickly come to you to attain something and to meet you. All of you will have to serve at a fast speed to enable all of those souls to receive the right to liberation and liberation-in-life from the Father in a second.
- 5) You are Brahma Kumars and Kumaris, the children of Brahma, who draws the lines of fortune. Therefore, let your treasure stores remain constantly over-flowing. Don't allow anyone to go back empty-handed. Remain the children of the Bestower and constantly continue to give and continue to fulfil all their feelings and desires. Become great donors and bestowers of blessings. This is your form.
- 6) The greatest gift of all is to become a child of the Bestower and give everyone co-operation. Always co-operate with everyone with your good wishes in putting right a task that has been spoilt, sanskars that have been spoilt or a mood that has been spoilt. "This one said this or did this." Whilst seeing, hearing and understanding this, bring about transformation with your stock of co-operation and make that soul full. This is the biggest donation of all.
- 7) When there is a gap, an all-round server would fill that gap at the right time. In the same way, if you feel that someone is lacking a particular power, then, help that one to fill that gap so that others don't experience anything lacking in that one. This is called becoming a child of the Bestower according to the time and giving a gift of co-operation to that soul.
- 8) It is remembered that the Father, the Bestower of Fortune, distributed fortune through Brahma. So, the task of Brahma is also the task of you Brahmins. People of the world distribute clothes, food and water, but only you children of the Bestower of Fortune can distribute this elevated fortune. Those who attain this fortune attain everything. Therefore, become generous-hearted in distributing this fortune.
- 9) People of the world consider donating to be an act of charity. You children of the Bestower are charitable souls who also constantly donate. You can have no desire to receive some temporary attainment from any soul: "If this soul gives something, then I will give", or "if this one does something, I will also do something". Don't have such limited feelings. As children of the Bestower, you are charitable souls who give love, co-operation and power to all souls.
- 10) Never have the desire to receive praise in return of the charity you perform. To accept this limited praise is to deprive yourself of permanent attainment. Therefore, be as constantly full as an ocean in terms of giving. Let your every word enable others to experience a spiritual blissful life of happiness, the Father's love and supersensuous joy. Let your every action constantly be such that it enables all souls to receive co-operation.

- 11) At present, all souls are like beggars and asking God for something or other. They all have in their minds or on their lips: "Give me this!" Some are beggars of wealth, some of co-operation, some of relationships, some of happiness or temporary comfort. Some are begging for rest or good sleep, some are begging for followers. You children of the Bestower have to become bestowers and, with your attitude of pure feelings, finish the hunger of beggar souls.
- 12) BapDada always has a big and unlimited heart and He is therefore the Comforter of Hearts who wins everyone's heart. In the same way, you children have unlimited hearts and are generous-hearted. You have the hearts of bestower. With your happy hearts, you are the happy souls who make the world happy. You elevated souls are supports for the world. All of you become ignited, living lamps and the world thereby becomes enlightened. When all of you have the ascending stage, there is benefit for all souls.
- 13) You master bestower children, who are embodiments of all attainments, need to have mercy and compassion for souls of the world: our brothers are wandering around so much with their temporary desires. Children of the Bestower, look with mercy and compassion on your brothers! Become great donors and bestower of blessings. Become sparkling jewels of contentment and give everyone contentment.
- 14) Many souls are remembering you ancestor souls, you worthy-of-worship souls as bestowers of peace and bestowers of power. At such a time, you become children of the Bestower, the souls who are bestowers of peace, master oceans of peace, who spread waves of peace. You become master suns of peace shining your rays of peace. Continue to give peace to everyone. Especially practise doing such service.
- 15) At present, all souls only need peace and power. With your powerful and peaceful mind, enable souls to experience peace of mind. Serve simultaneously with your words and your mind. A world emperor is called a bestower to the world. When you give everyone the donation of peace and power at this time, everyone will accept you as a bestower of happiness.
- 16) You children of the Bestower are master bestowers, the ones who bestow on everyone. With a second of your drishti and with your invaluable words, you can quench the thirst of thirsty souls. Any hungry soul who comes to your door should not go away empty-handed. Sakar Baba demonstrated this: not a single soul went away discontented. No matter what type of soul someone may be, he should go away contented.
- 17) Constantly consider yourself to be a bestower, that is, a great donor. Only after becoming a great, gyani soul can you carry out the task of a great donor. A great, gyani soul is recognised by his acts of a great donor. All souls definitely have to receive their own accurate parts and the Father's inheritance through you. For this, let there be such a sparkle in your form that no one remains deprived of claiming their inheritance. Consider yourself to be a bestower, a child of the Bestower. One who bestows has that sparkle and intoxication. Now, let those sanskars emerge.
- 18) Whenever anyone needs any type of co-operation, then, as a child of the Bestower, give that one co-operation. However, you can only be co-operative with everyone when you are loving to everyone. If you are not loving, you cannot be co-operative with everyone. This is why you have to be co-operative in your thoughts, words, actions and relationships and become an embodiment of success.
- 19) In order to quench the thirst and hunger of desperate, hungry and thirsty souls, fill yourself with supersensuous joy and all powers. The more you accumulate the treasures of all powers and of supersensuous joy, the more your stage will remain stable and you will be able to make other souls perfect. You are children of the Bestower who fill everyone's apron. Therefore, you have to give to everyone. This scene of giving will very soon come in front of you.
- 20) You Godly servers are those who serve, not those who are served by others. If you become those who take service, your duty is not then according to your name. Godly servers do not take service, they do service because they are the children of the Bestower. Just as the Father never takes anything and always gives, in the same way, you also have to become those who give. If you ever become problematic, that would also be taking service. Anyone who takes any type of extra service from others will never have the intoxication of being a child of the Bestower and the Bestower of Blessings.

- 21) You children of the Bestower have to bestow at every second and in every thought. The main virtue of bestowers is generosity. Such souls will be instruments to uplift others. So, always remember that you are the children of the Bestower and that you cannot remain without bestowing for even a second. Such souls are called great donors. Your door should be constantly open for giving. Just as the door of a temple is always open, in the same way, the door of a bestower should never be closed but be constantly open for bestowing.
- 22) At every second and in every thought, check that you gave something and not that you also took. Continue to give. You have to take from the Father and you have already taken that. Now you have to give. The busier you remain in giving, the less difficult it will be for you to go through any adverse situation. Everything will become easy because, by becoming a great donor, you automatically receive great power.
- 23) The more you become a donor, the more you will be able to make yourself full. When your treasure-store is full, why should you not become a bestower? This is known as being a constant spiritual server. In order to become a world emperor, you do not just have to become a bestower of this knowledge. For this, you also have to give love, that is, you have to give co-operation. If you take this high jump, you will easily become elevated in all respects.
- 24) If, after giving something, you think that you gave that much and that you should receive some respect or honour because of it, that is also a desire to receive something. If children of the Bestower have any thought of taking, they are not bestowers. This form of taking does not suit a person who gives.
- 25) Children of the Bestower are constantly full of all types of prosperity. Sanskars of a devotee or a beggar should never emerge. You should not even have the thought that Baba should help you or give you blessings. "Baba, I need co-operation. I need power". These words "I want..." do not suit the children who are bestowers, bestowers of fortune and bestowers of blessings. You children of the Bestower are full of all powers. This stage of fullness will bring the stage of perfection close.
- 26) You children must not take anything from souls. Simply take from the one Father. Whatever you have taken, you have to give that to others. When you have to give to others, you must not have any desire to take anything. If a soul has a desire to receive anything from souls, then that soul will only have limited and temporary attainment from limited souls. Only from the unlimited Father you receive unlimited attainment. Any type of slight desire to take something from anyone will make you fall from your self-respect.
- 27) When a weak soul comes in front of you, give that weak soul power. Give that soul the inheritance of all powers that you have received. Become a bestower and give the Father's treasures to all souls. Use your own powers to give thirsty and desperate souls the donation of life. Become a bestower of blessings and, with blessings, bring them into a close relationship with the Father. By using your sanskars of a bestower here, you will be able to fill yourself with the sanskars of a bestower for 21 births in the future.
- 28) BapDada now wants each of you children to become master bestowers. Become merciful to everyone and co-operate with your virtues and powers. Be generous hearted. The more treasures you give to others, the more your treasures will increase. Perishable treasures decrease by giving, whereas these imperishable treasures increase; give one and receive a thousand-fold.
- 29) You children have a full of treasure of experiences. Perfect idols, who are full of the treasures of experience, will automatically become master bestowers. Bestowers are servers. Bestowers cannot stay without serving to others. With their virtue of being merciful, they will give courage to some souls and power to other souls who are weak. They are master bestowers of happiness.
- 30) Brahmin souls already have this knowledge; so you have to become bestowers for them in two ways. Firstly, whatever power souls need, use your mind, that is, your pure attitude and vibrations, to donate that power to them; that is, you have to co-operate with them. Secondly, in the activity of your life, constantly be an embodiment of virtues. Become a practical sample and give co-operate to others so that they can imbibe virtues easily. This is known as donating virtues. To donate means to co-operate.
