

Om Shanti.

Today is Rakhi...so in Baba's Remembrance, I went to Baba on behalf of all of us. First I offered Bhog to Baba, and then I tied Rakhi to Baba on behalf of everyone. Baba also tied Rakhi and said: this bond is a bond of pure love. When you souls tie the Supreme Soul, who is the Ocean of Love, in a bond, you experience a lot of love. When we came to Baba, there was love and only love. This love that you have received is God's Love. What you have received should be visible in your mind, from your heart, and in your form. This Godly Love should always be visible in your activity, your drishti, and from your face. It is God's Love, but it is for everyone.

Then Baba said: You gave to Baba the promise of purity. In return, Baba gives you the inheritance.

After this exchange of drishti, Baba asked a question: Have the children received the inheritance? I said, yes Baba, they have received it.

Then Baba said: Sometimes the children forget it. Baba gives knowledge, love, bliss, peace... the inheritance of all virtues. The ones who receive such an inheritance remains full. But sometimes the children forget what they have received. So it then doesn't appear in their form. And when it is the time to give – it is as if their stock is not full. So keep on reminding yourself. This is the tilak Baba is giving: The awareness that I am Baba's heir child. Only at the Confluence Age only can I be aware of the experience of Baba's inheritance. In the Golden Age I have the reward of the effort made now. But the experience of attainment as Baba's Child is the unique experience of the Confluence Age.

So this is Baba's gift for Rakhi: applying the tilak of the awareness that Baba is giving inheritance and I am an heir child. And my gift to Baba for Rakhi is the promise of purity, through which I attain the power of purity.

Then Baba, the Ocean of Love, said: Now Baba wants to see you as such an embodiment of Godly Love, so that everyone can experience God's Love through you. To the extent one experiences such love, to that extent, the feeling – the bhavna – will be awakened. Their fortune will be made also, and they will get inspiration. Until now, their intellect likes it, but their feelings should now awaken. That only will happen when they experience God's Love.

So what Baba wants is gifted in through tying this rakhi and applying the tilak: Remember your inheritance and be an embodiment of God's Love.

Everyone should have this experience. Baba gave tilak to all, and also gave lots of love and remembrance to everyone.

Om Shanti.
