Om shanti.

Everyone's love-filled remembrance of Baba was reaching Baba. When Baba called me to subtle regions, I also gave everyone's love. Baba said: As much as children love me, I also love every child. Every child is special...very valuable.

Today, Baba was giving each one very powerful drishti. And through that drishti, Baba was giving a special blessing to each one. Whatever part you are playing using your power and specialities...Baba blesses each one that those capacities keep increasing. As a helper of God in His Task...remain very powerful.

Baba said there is one particular thing to pay attention to: Currently, a lot of the time the thoughts are focussed on actions or words. But remembrance, smriti, needs to be more...and needs to be powerful. Yes, there is Baba's Remembrance. And yes, there is awareness of one's own part, of one's self. It is there, but not necessarily in a powerful way. Make your smriti (awareness/remembrance) more powerful, and more consistent. Why? Because the circumstances—whatever is happening around you— will not necessarily help you. They could divert you, distract you, or disappoint you. Many things can happen. But when your smriti is powerful, you will keep ascending without any obstacles. Otherwise, there can be subtle obstacles because the mind/awareness is not that powerful. As much as you remember Baba, there is more power.

Another important awareness these days is 'I am under Baba's Canopy.' Remind yourself. You will feel safe. Not only safe, but very protected from everything. That is something very important.

As I took drishti from Baba, and Baba was giving drishti, He said: stay in front of my eyes. Take drishti from Baba, and Baba will also keep you in front. His drishti will stay on you.

I shared that, after one month, I am feeling myself. Baba, I thank you for that. And Baba responded: No, children have still to play their part. But Baba will definitely give power, help, and protection. It was so beautiful to be with Baba today.

Baba gave love, remembrance to everyone. And I returned.

Om shanti.
