

Om Shanti.

Taking everyone's love-filled remembrances, when Baba invoked me and I was in front of Baba, Baba, with a lot of love, was looking at each one of us, not only with love, but as if Baba was brining every child near to His Heart. And after sharing drishti, Baba said, "Each child is not only valuable, but also an instrument in Baba's Task. Because everyone is on service, doing something for Baba, Baba has to keep everyone very close to Him."

Not only does Baba keeps us close, Baba keeps bestowing. Baba keeps you full. But it your own effort to remain full. Whatever is the need of the soul, Baba keeps providing that, so that children remain full. But it is up to each one of us to remain full ... we have to do, not Baba. Baba gives equally to everyone: blessings and power. But what children are able to keep is up to each child. So, Baba was explaining what He is doing, and what we have to do. It's not one or the other - it is a combined endeavor, because you are Baba's Instrument.

Baba sees that many children have many situations. And those situations affect the children's stage. There are three things that are influencing children a lot:

1. The atmosphere of the world
2. Karmic accounts emerging in interations within the Family
3. Your own sanskars

Effort to be very much into what I have to be...do not influenced. We may not have control over world situations or interactions ... but I can take care of my sanskars. In this transformation of sanskars, it is not necessarily negative to positive, but transformation of weak sanskars into powerful sanskars. Whenever you find you have a weak thought – through the power of gyan, yoga, and practices – make your thoughts powerful.

Baba's Hand of blessings are on each child, because it is with these blessings that you are very successful in whatever you do. Your success depends on Baba's Blessings. Always remember, it is Baba's Task, so how can it not be successful. When you forget, subtle doubts come: "Will I t happen? How will it happen?" Use the power of faith all the time – and success is not only guaranteed, but will constantly be with you.

Baba then gave love and remembrances to everyone.

Om shanti.
