

Bhog Sandesh | May 21, 2026 via Mohini Didi

Om shanti.

In remembrance of Baba, I took everyone's love-filled remembrance to meet Baba in Subtle Regions. It was very, very beautiful because each one of you were in your sparkling costume...you all were present there in Subtle Regions. Baba welcomed everyone with loveful drishti. Not just love, but through Baba's Light, Baba was just bestowing lots of power also. So it was drishti of love, and of power.

After a few moments, Baba looked at me and I said: Baba I have brought Bhog from Peace Village, Avyakti Parivar and our gathering here of all the instruments. And Baba accepted Bhog with a lot of love.

After, Baba was still sharing drishti with all of you. And I explained a little of what was happening here in the retreat.

Baba is always pulled when there is a beautiful gathering of the children because Baba likes the children to be together. Baba is always very much present in such a gathering. So Baba said; Yes, they are all present and I am also with all of you.

I explained that the instruments have decided to have topic of Bestower, like Baba. Baba smiled, and said: To become a bestower, you have to be full. And to be full, you have to constantly receive from Baba. Baba is filling your apron with knowledge, with love, with happiness, with all the virtues. So keep receiving from Baba. Fill your treasure store. Because when your treasure store is full – only then can you give to others.

One is receiving....other is offering. What you receive, you offer to Baba, offer as your sewa and your cooperation, in Baba's Task. When you offer, whether one grain or a handful, what you receive is the return of that. Abundance. Everything. There is the example of the drop of Draupadi. She only had one grain of rice with which to feed so many spiritual gurus. She offered that, Krishna ate that one grain, and the pot started to become so full. That is your example. Whatever you offer—you may think you don't have a lot— but you have at least have one grain. If you have one grain, offer that. When you offer and it is accepted by Baba, you are always full. So remain full by receiving. And remain full by offering.

Of course, you also need a very kind, generous and a big heart. You sometimes focus just on quantity: how many students, how big the centre. But actually what is important, and what Baba looks at, is having the kindness and compassion to serve. Always have a generous heart. Keep your treasure stores full and keep your heart open – and you will see how Baba makes you an instrument to serve in an unlimited way.

This internal unlimited will create external unlimited.

Baba is very, very pleased. Every child is very valuable. Is very special. Always have that self-respect, and pure pride, that Baba has adopted me as a child. Baba has adopted me. The intoxication of Baba's inheritance. God's inheritance. The Father's inheritance.

Baba again wanted to share the blessing of always remaining full. Full, and then bestower.

Lots of love, remembrances.. and stay always free from all obstacles.

Om Shanti.
