

Bhog Sandesh | May 28, 2026 via Mohini Didi

Om shanti.

Taking everyone's love remembrances, when I was with Baba in the Subtle Regions, Baba was giving drishti to this gathering. Of course, Baba gives a lot of drishti.

And after a few moments, I said: I have brought bhog from Peace Village on behalf of the big family here, from all different countries and states. Baba smiled and said, it is the gathering of holy swans. Very beautiful. And also, you have power. Like a swan.

So, everyone keeps oneself very, very pure and lovely. Baba - when he looks at each child – he finds that every child is very sincerely making effort. Day and night, everyone has the thought – not only to create fortune – but to use everything in a worthwhile way. Many Baba's children are also thinking about how to pack up...to withdraw, feeling more and more [that something] is no longer useful to me. Baba can hear these voices/feelings of the children.

After a few moments, Baba said: There is always power in the gathering. When you all sit together, it creates somewhere in the world a big impact. Whether big or small, the gathering has power.

Then I said: Baba, there are many giving love remembrances and sending different messages.

Baba said: As time is short, and culmination has to happen, what you require now is accumulation of powers. Because there will be settling of karmic accounts.— whatever is left. And that could affect the atmosphere. Even you will not know from where, but the vibrations of the sorrow in the world – whatever negativity and suffering is there – those vibrations also create the atmosphere. And there is also your own personal karmic account - it could be mind, body, relationships or resources...anything. If you have accumulation you will pass with honor – none of it will affect you.

Also, Baba said: Baba is giving, bestowing, a lot. Take from Baba. Receive from Baba. And accumulate your own income and Baba's Blessings. Yes, whenever you have some beautiful spiritual practices and experiences – this is good and also inspires new methods of service. So, Baba wants to give all the children in this gathering Baba's blessings: you are successful...but you will be more successful. Full Success. 100% success in whatever you do. Because of your love for Baba and your sincere efforts you will constantly receive blessings.

You have to give the message. One is to give 7-day course, etc. There might not be many who will come. So create something very short that can give them the experience and support immediately. Enable them to come out of their sadness, come out of their vices into lightness. Very short experiences. Experience is the way of helping them to come out of whatever they are going through. And definitely for that, one thing is preparing what you have to say or do. But also, you have to be embodiment of those qualities.

There will especially be a lot of hopelessness, anger, and fear. So, your words should create faith in them and remove their fear. And give hope that "yes, I can do this...there is a future." In hopelessness, they feel there is no future. But tell them about the inheritance from God as their future.

So, Baba was giving small indications of what the present plan for serving should be: very brief and experiential. From your own personal stage. That will be not only be effective, but essential at his time.

You will be able to serve, and there will be more and more seekers. Many will come to take help. You will be able to do that. Be ready for that service. You will be able to do lots.

Baba gave very loveful drishti, and then lots of love remembrances for each one of you.

Om Shanti.
