

Bhog Sandesh | November 27, 2025 via Mohini Didi

When I went to offer Bhog to Baba – He gave very loving drishti.

After a few moments, I said ‘Baba I have brought Bhog from the Family.’

Baba was smiling at all of us. Then He said: All the children are under Baba’s Canopy. You might not be able to see it, because it is invisible. But Baba’s Light and Might is always there. Different scenes of Drama can be test papers, so you can be victorious.

What is most important is total surrender. Surrender is like belonging to Baba. My mind. My body. Everything belongs to Baba. And Baba has to use that in a worthwhile way. One is that you plan how to use resources in a worthwhile way. Other is that you surrender it to Baba, and then Baba uses in a worthwhile way.

During Sakar Baba’s days also, some will have their own plans on how to use in a worthwhile way – whether resources or their body. But some will just tell Baba ‘everything belongs to you.’ And then Baba will use in an unlimited, worthwhile way.

So if you have total surrender, then Baba can use in unlimited worthwhile way.

Then Baba also said ‘Yes, you all thank Baba. But Baba also wants to thank you. Because you are all every-ready, available. And day and night you always have the thought to be a helper in Baba’s Task. So Baba not only thanks the children – but congratulates the children for their efforts. Everyone, very sincerely, is making good efforts. Continue.

Then Baba, again, gave love-filled drishti. And I came back.

Om shanti.
