* kindly note that:

- No translation will be provided by the organizing team. If you need translation from English to your language, please arrange this for yourself
- Attending the retreat murli and all retreat sessions with love and punctuality, is mandatory, except in cases of genuine emergency

Important information:

- Tower of Silence retreats offer a unique silent space for all who find the courage to sincerely accept and live new life through their now % of perfect, angelic existence, increase it, and recognise it's timeless speed in serving souls and the elements, foremost all those who cooperate in the pre - reconstruction and refinement of satyug.
- The Retreat is in complete silence from its beginning to the end, except for the daily retreat murli , that links murli essences to their avyakt level and to gyani silence.
- As silence of words is the foundation for silence of the mind, verbal activities of any kind are not permitted during the retreat eg when eating, at your room, reading murli out loud, online sessions etc, unless with explicit permission of team ToS coordinator or in a real emergency. Only those who feel they will be pukka in this should apply.
- These days of intrinsic divine silence will concentrate on in-depth individual loving transformation into perfection, ushering in practical solutions for the self and the new world.
- Online participants at different time zones will get a manual for them to take part according to their convenience.
